

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2022

What's Happening?

C18 Display celebrating black female artists 4 Oct

C4/5 Lesson time Philosophical discussion on what statues are for 3-13 Oct

Recital Hall 1 - 1.30 MOBO lunchtime concert 11 Oct

C1 12.45 - 1.30 Talk on African art in European museums/galleries 12 Oct

Treasure hunt: Black British people everyone should know 3-14 Oct

Form Rooms Pathways to change - different ways to use your voice for change. 4 Oct

Lesson time In-lesson discussion of African mathematicians 3-14 Oct

2022 theme: Time for Action not words

Inspirational Black women in Business and Economics 3-14 Oct

C1 The significance of 'Black Panther'; Race & Cinema 10 Oct

Lesson time BHM: Pioneering Computer Scientists 3-14 Oct

Lesson time Inspirational Black women in Business and Economics 3-14 Oct

Library BHM: A Literary Gallery 3-14 Oct

Lesson time 'Black History and Maps' 3-13 Oct

Lesson time Inspirational Black Scientists 3-14 Oct

Lesson time In praise of Malorie Blackman 3-14 Oct

Lunch Reading and exploring 'Girl, Woman, Other' by Bernardine Evaristo 7 Oct

Library 12.45 - 1.30 Meet Marie-Claire Amuah and explore her new novel, 'One for Sorrow, Two for Joy' 7 Oct

Longton Hall Period 4 First Lecture Series Talk: Maria McDowell 7 Oct

Lecture Theatre 4.00 Film night - Hidden Figures 11 Oct

C1 Notting Hill Carnival 6 Oct

C1 Lunch A personal window into Nigerian and Jamaican culture 14 Oct

C1 Lunch An investigation of Black figures in classical Greek art 12 Oct

C1 'Bessie Coleman: The Unsung Pioneer of Females in Aviation' 4 Oct

C1 Lunch BHM Special - The power of Music 13 Oct

Netball after Windrush as part of Body, Mind and Soul Day 14 Oct

Lunch Cooking competition for pupils of African heritage whose culture has Jollof Rice in its cuisine 31 Oct