Anti Bullying Policy Whole School: Senior School/Prep School: EYFS, KS1 and KS2

GDST Statement of Philosophy

- Our school community is based on an ethos of mutual respect and consideration. The school and the GDST are committed to providing a safe and happy learning environment for all
- We do not tolerate bullying, harassment, victimisation or discrimination of any kind and we work hard to prevent these or tackle them if they occur
- Bullying is a whole school issue and we take a whole school approach in response. Any member of the community may bully or be a target of bullying: we regard all incidences of bullying equally seriously and in turn expect all staff, pupils and parents to play their part in preventing and tackling bullying.

1. Aims and objectives

This policy aims to:

- Try and prevent bullying, as far as possible, and
- Help staff, pupils and parents deal with bullying when it occurs.

The school seeks to provide a safe, secure learning environment in which every person is respected and respects others. The anti-bullying policy is to encourage those who feel bullied and those who witness bullying to tell of their experiences and feel safe in making such disclosures. The policy aims to make clear to parents and girls that bullying is unacceptable. This policy has regard to DCSF Guidance. Safe to Learn: Embedding anti-bullying work in schools and Cyberbullying. Safe to Learn: Embedding anti-bullying work in schools

2. What do we mean by bullying?

The Department for Education defines bullying as 'behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally'.

This can include:

- Physically hurting or attempting to hurt, harm or humiliate another person or damaging their property
- Verbal abuse such as name-calling, taunting, mocking or writing unkind notes
- Emotional manipulation such as excluding someone or spreading malicious rumours about them, building negative alliances based on gossip, or deliberately betraying former confidences to humiliate or isolate another pupil

- Cyberbullying, i.e. via social networking websites, phone calls, text messages, photographs or emails. Please see the Cyberbullying Annex for more detailed information.
- Unpleasant remarks or actions motivated by prejudice against particular groups in line with The Equality Act 2010, for example on grounds of:
 - Race, religion or culture
 - age
 - Sex
 - Gender, gender identity or perceived gender identity
 - Sexual orientation
 - Disability or Special Educational Needs
 - Intellectual or other abilities
 - Appearance or health conditions
 - Being adopted or a carer

Any behaviour that a reasonable bystander would say was intended to hurt or upset the target is wrong and could constitute bullying, including complicity that may fall short of participating directly in the bullying. It is no justification that the perpetrator says or believes that the target is not upset or hurt by his or her actions or words.

Much bullying is performed in subtle ways, which are not easy to detect; a bully can use a simple look, word or gesture to a target to signal an intended threat or insult. Some pupils are adept at changing a bullying situation into an apparently harmless one when an adult approaches. This makes it all the more important for the target or another pupil to be able to come forward to report bullying, and for staff and parents to be alert to symptoms of bullying.

Bullying is always hurtful to the target and damaging to the whole school community. Anyone and everyone who is involved in or witnesses bullying is affected by it. It can cause great distress, unhappiness and psychological damage and at its worst lead to suicide. It can also be a criminal offence, for example if the behaviour amounts to harassment or threatening behaviour.

How does bullying differ from teasing or friendship difficulties?

Sometimes pupils can feel hurt or upset because they have been teased or have fallen out with a friend. This is not the same as bullying. Bullying:

- Is deliberately intended to hurt or humiliate
- Involves a power imbalance that makes it hard for the target to defend themselves
- Is usually persistent
- Often involves no remorse or acknowledgement of the target's feelings

School staff are ready to help and support pupils who have fallen out with friends, but such situations will not be treated in the same way as a case of bullying. However, the strategies we use may be similar because we acknowledge that over a period of time the impact on the pupil may be the same, and the situation could become bullying if it escalates.

We recognise that one off incidents of negative behaviour can be damaging and upsetting for pupils. All incidents will be dealt with according to our Behaviour Policy and with the involvement of the pastoral team. Incidents of negative behaviour are recorded on CPOMS and emerging patterns of negative behaviour are monitored. This approach is taken in order to tackle bullying type behaviour early and act to prevent escalation.

3 All parts of the School community must work together to tackle bullying Preventing Bullying

We aim to prevent bullying by:

- Fostering a whole school ethos of good behaviour, mutual respect, and consideration. We aim to create a safe, happy, and inclusive environment for learning, and encourage pupils to value diversity and difference, protect the vulnerable, and appreciate how their actions might affect others
- Developing a culture in which diversity is championed and celebrated and in which the school takes a proactive role in educating pupils and other members of the school community in issues around equality
- Developing a culture in which the vulnerable are protected and incidents which might demonstrate prejudice or intolerance are tackled and addressed, for example by challenging inappropriate or prejudicial language
- Encouraging all members of the school community to have high expectations and model how to behave towards each other
- Raising awareness about bullying through opportunities in the curriculum, the PSHE programme, assemblies, and national events such as Anti Bullying Week, amongst others
- Developing pupils' social skills, confidence, resilience and self esteem; and defining the value of assertiveness in relationships as opposed to aggression, whether direct or indirect
- Educating pupils and other members of the school community about how to keep themselves safe when online or using social media or other electronic means of communication, so they take maximum precautions to help prevent themselves being targets of cyberbullying
- Making it clear to all that there are effective procedures for reporting (including anonymous reporting), investigating and tackling bullying and encouraging pupils to report instances of anything they perceive to be bullying
- Making it clear to all that incidents of cyberbullying or bullying of any kind that occur off the school premises but have an impact on the classroom environment or relationships between pupils will be pursued with the same seriousness as bullying occurring within school
- Making it as easy as possible for pupils who are being bullied to talk to someone they trust and get help confidentially
- Having a strong pastoral team dedicated to pupil welfare and experienced in dealing with bullying issues. All our staff are trained in recognising and responding to bullying and staff awareness is raised through regular discussion of pupil issues in pastoral meetings. Action is taken to reduce the risk of bullying where and when it is known to be most likely to occur. The member of staff with overall responsibility for anti-bullying work is Deputy Head (Pastoral) in the Senior School and Deputy Head in the Prep School
- Anti-bullying register allows pastoral team to identify emerging patterns of bullying incidents and for strategies to be implemented to address such patterns (Girls on Board sessions, PSHE lessons etc)
- Taking pupils' views into account through the School Council, and developing the roles that pupils can play in anti bullying work
- Ensuring all pupils sign up to the school's Acceptable Use Agreements, which make it clear that cyberbullying is unacceptable. This message is regularly reinforced in lessons and pastoral sessions. The School also makes more detailed information on how to deal with cyberbullying available to pupils and parents and runs parents' information sessions on e-safety.
- Ensuring that the IT filtering and monitoring systems are effective in protecting members of the school community
- Working in line with national guidance, and the requirements of our regulatory bodies.
- Digital leaders have been appointed.

Being aware – possible signs of bullying

Changes in behaviour that may indicate a pupil is being bullied include:

- Unwillingness to go to school or return after a break
- Failure to produce work, or producing unusually bad work, work that appears to have been copied, or interfered with or spoilt by others
- Belongings suddenly going missing or being damaged
- Change to established habits (e.g. giving up music lessons, sitting in the library instead of going out at playtime)
- Diminished levels of self confidence
- Inability to concentrate
- Anxiety, depression, becoming withdrawn or unusually quiet
- Repressed body language and poor eye contact
- Frequent absence, erratic attendance, late arrival to class
- Reluctance to leave the classroom at the end of lessons or school day
- Choosing the company of adults
- Frequent visits to the medical centre with symptoms such as stomach pains or headaches, especially at particular times or during particular lessons
- Unexplained cuts and bruises
- Difficulty in sleeping, nightmares
- Talking of suicide or running away

Although there may be other causes for these symptoms, teachers, parents and fellow pupils should be alert for these possible signs of bullying and contact a member of the pastoral team if they are concerned.

At Sydenham High School we recognise the serious nature of bullying and that it can cause psychological as well as physical harm. We also recognise that harassment and threatening behaviour have no part to play in our society in school or elsewhere.

Sadly, some individuals are more vulnerable to bullying, and less likely to speak out – including LGBTQIA+ pupils and those with SEND. Again, staff, parents and peers should bear this in mind in cases of possible or suspected bullying. Further guidance for staff on preventing, identifying and dealing with such types of bullying can be found in the Anti-Bullying Guidance on the staff intranet.

4. Guidance: Dealing with Bullying

Pupils

- remember bullying is not acceptable
- remember tolerance of bullying by other pupils condones bullying
- remember to speak out if bullied or when you witness bullying
- report bullying to your Form Teacher/Tutor or Head of Year or Peer Mentor or Sixth Form prefect. If you wish you could do this by letter initially.
- ensure you understand what bullying is
- be involved through PSHE and treat all pupils with respect

Sixth Form Year Link Prefects

- be alert to difficulties particularly in your form group or through mentoring procedures
- if problems are referred never promise confidentiality – persuade the pupil to report to a member of staff or tell the pupil you must seek further help.

If you are being bullied

- Stay calm. Tell the bully to stop and get away from the situation as quickly as you can
- Do not suffer in silence: talk to a member of staff. This could be your class teacher, tutor or year group head, the school nurse or counsellor, or any other member of staff you trust. If you are unhappy about talking to a member of staff directly, you could talk to someone in your family, a friend. Telling does not make you a 'grass' or 'snitch': not telling means that the bullying is likely to continue. Remember you may not be the only target
- Be assured that we take every report of bullying seriously and will act upon it, even if it occurred outside the school. We will keep records of what has happened, and consult you and support you in whatever action we take
- Remember being bullied is not your fault – nobody ever deserves to be bullied
- If you feel you are being bullied by a member of staff you should take the same action as if it were another pupil, that is, report the matter to someone you trust. All forms of bullying are unacceptable and all reports of bullying are investigated and dealt with irrespective of who the person responsible for the bullying incident might be

If you know that someone else is being bullied

- Talk to a member of staff, or help the person being bullied to talk to a member of staff, so that the school can take steps to help
- Defend the individual and question the bullying behaviour – studies show that one of the most effective ways of stopping bullying is for fellow pupils to show their support for the person being bullied
- Try to defuse the situation: intervene as a group; walk away, taking the person being bullied with you; take away the audience; distract the perpetrator or use humour to lighten up a serious situation
- Leave the chat if online
- Be sceptical about rumours concerning other pupils. Don't add to them. Put yourself in their position
- Spend time with the person being bullied and be kind to them
- Don't be a bystander. Many perpetrators will not persist in bullying unless they have an audience to play to, and by not taking action it could be argued you are condoning what is happening

What the school will do

The exact course of action will vary with each situation. The immediate objective should be that bullying incidents are brought into the open and strategies agreed to help resolve the problem, encouraging all involved to return to responsible, caring behaviour.

- o All reports of bullying will be taken seriously and investigated immediately
- o Bullying on the basis of protected characteristics is taken particularly seriously
- o It is not possible for any person who receives a report of a bullying incident to promise that it will be kept confidential. However, the action to be taken will be discussed with the person being bullied at every stage

- o Everything that happens will be carefully recorded
- o The most important thing is to stop the bullying and ensure the person being bullied is safe
- o We aim for a peaceful resolution: revenge is not helpful or appropriate
- o The person being bullied will be supported throughout the process
- o Sanctions may be imposed (see below) but guidance and help will also be available for the perpetrator(s) to help change their behaviour
- o Staff will monitor the situation to ensure that the bullying does not continue. If bullying recurs, further action will be taken
- o The school will record all bullying incidents, so that we can monitor the effectiveness of our anti-bullying measures and identify any patterns in order to inform preventative work and the future development of policies and procedures.

Sanctions

It is important that those found responsible for bullying are held to account and accept responsibility for the harm caused. Action taken in response to bullying will be intended to communicate unambiguous disapproval of the bully's activities, and this will usually include sanctions. Sanctions help reassure the target that the bullying will stop; they help those responsible recognise the harm caused by their behaviour and deter them from repeating it; they demonstrate to the school community that bullying is unacceptable and that the school has effective ways of dealing with it, so deterring others from behaving in a similar way.

If sanctions are warranted, the person(s) responsible will receive a sanction in accordance with the school's behaviour policy. Any sanctions imposed will be fair, proportionate and reasonable, take account of any special educational needs or disabilities that pupils may have, and consider the needs of vulnerable pupils.

In any serious case of bullying, the Head will be informed and the school will work with the parents of both the target and the perpetrator. The school will remain in regular contact with parents until the situation is resolved.

In the most serious cases, the sanction may be a fixed term or permanent exclusion.

A bullying incident will be regarded as a child protection concern when there is 'reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm' (Children Act 1989). Where this is the case, after the Head has been involved, it may be necessary to make a report to the Social Services and in certain cases the police.

Partnership with Parents

We believe that working with parents/guardians is essential to establishing the school's anti-bullying ethos and resolving any issues that arise

- Parents are encouraged to reinforce the principles of the Anti Bullying Policy at home
- Encourage pupils to say if bullying is happening
- Parents are asked to contact the school directly if they have cause for concern, either on behalf of their own children or because of rumours about others
 - o Prep School: Deputy Head of Prep School
 - o Senior School: Head of Year or Deputy Head (Pastoral)

- In any serious case of bullying, parents will be informed by the school and may be invited in to discuss the matter. We will keep in regular contact with parents until the issue is resolved
- never let a pupil accept bullying
- help restore confidence after bullying incidents
- encourage pupils to be more assertive but less aggressive.

Teaching Staff

- challenge unpleasant comments in and out of class
- do not always allow choice when creating group/pair situations so that pupils do not feel isolated or left out
- be aware of isolated or unhappy pupils around the school
- avoid sarcasm – this can be threatening and undermine pupil confidence
- lead by example
- treat pupils and colleagues with respect
- do not be dismissive of reports of bullying – act upon them and report to
 - o Prep School: Deputy Head of Prep School
 - o Senior School: Head of Year or Deputy Head (Pastoral)

Support Staff

- be pleasant and approachable – “firm but fair”
- treat pupils and colleagues with respect
- kitchen staff should report incidents in the dining areas to duty staff
- Nurse should be aware of individuals who use the medical room frequently and discuss with the Deputy Head of Prep School/Deputy Head (Pastoral).

5. Procedures

- All accusations of bullying will be taken seriously and investigated. Specific consideration should be given when bullying appears to be targeting a recognized disability in an individual.
- Incidents must be recorded in writing, dated and passed to Form Tutor/Teacher, Head of Year, Deputy Head of Prep School as appropriate to investigate fully and speak to all pupils concerned.

- Heads of Year/Deputy Head of Prep School to check with the target approximately two weeks later and to write to parents as part of the monitoring process.
- Form tutors to talk separately to pupils about bullying and coping with bullies.
- Policy to be reviewed annually by the Senior Leadership Team.
- A copy of the policy to be posted on the school website and made available upon request to parents.

- Bullying that takes place off the school premises, e.g. Cyber bullying, may still be investigated by the school and may involve outside agencies. SydICT Acceptable Use Policy
- Allegations of bullying by staff will be investigated as they would be if made against another pupil. The staff disciplinary procedure may be used if appropriate.
